37th Kosciuszko Rally 2018

Invites rallying motorcyclists to the 37th Kosciuszko Rally over the weekend 13-14 October 2018 at Geehi Flat Campground in the picturesque Kosciuszko National Park that offers some of the best motorcycle riding in SE Australia.

Geehi Flat Campground is located on the Alpine Way with fuel and supplies available in Jindabyne 80km, Thredbo 43km (limited) or Khancoban 31km (limited) NSW.

Kosciuszko National Park (KNP) has entry fees for campers and please remember to take your rubbish out with you. You can check on local road conditions on the NSW Roads & Maritime Services website https://www.livetraffic.com/desktop.html.

Your rally entry of $20 includes a badge, tea & coffee on arrival with firewood provided and on-site toilets. Yes it does cost money to organize and run rallies. Raffle tickets will be available for sale and your opportunity to win some great prizes including a pair of BMW ProSummer Gloves (rrp $160) or BMW ProWinter Gloves (rrp $225) as a size selectable voucher, BMW waterproof Roll Bag (rrp $250) and other great prizes *T&C.

The usual rally awards will be up for grabs and the Club will have for sale on Saturday night the popular Germanic Kransky & salad rolls and on Sunday a breakfast of egg 'n' bacon rolls and espresso coffee.

Money raised at the rally is donated to charity or community groups. In 2017 rallyists and Club donated $1000 to Talbingo Primary School and purchase of an industrial grade ping pong table for students use as an indoor winter/inclement weather sporting activity.
